Lloyd and Alberta Wagaman at the World's Fair of Money in Chicago, August, 2013

by D. Frank Elam

Yes, you read the title of the article right. Let's begin the story... I attended the American Numismatic Association Annual Coin Show August 13 – 17, 2013 in Rosemont, Illinois. Besides the buying, selling and trading of tokens and coins, one is able to attend educational programs in various formats: ANA seminars; 2-day intensive workshops; "Money Talks", an informative 45 minute presentation on a specific topic and collector exhibits.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our 2013 show is now history and it was a good one according to comments from numerous collectors and dealers. We benefitted again from good weather and able assistance from Ron Vore (bourse room set-up/tear down and security), Terry Stahurski (auction), and several others for publicity, donuts, etc. We had 27 tables of quality merchandise offered by dealers from as far away as AR, FL, MA, MD, and TX. We missed our good friend Kevin Grant who could not make the show despite his strong desire to do so. Planning is underway for 2014.

A public thank you to John Mutch, President of The Token and Medal Society who converted the old floppy discs containing the 2nd edition Ohio Merchant Token catalog to flash drive.

Unfortunately, Kevin has found it necessary to announce his resignation from the prestigious position of IKO-TAMS Bulletin Editor for health reasons. This is a serious set-back to us as he has done an exemplary job since taking over in 2005, and we know he will not be easy to replace. This is his last bulletin. SOMEONE MUST STEP-UP AS OUR QUARTERLY PUBLICATION IS THE ONLY PRACTICAL WAY TO COMMUNICATE WITH THE MEMBERSHIP AND IS THE NERVE SYSTEM THAT KEEPS US IN TOUCH WITH EACH OTHER. Please contact me if you would like to know more about the opportunity.

Secy. Jim Lindsay is collecting dues payments for 2014, still only $10. (Pay $20 for 2 years if you will.) Your early payment will reduce the workload and operating expense so we can continue to hold the dues at the present level. PLEASE SEND THAT PAYMENT TO JIM NOW!

There were more than 50 competitive exhibits in 20 classes. Class 8 is elongated coins. There was only one entry in this class titled, "Dottie Dow – The Queen of Elongated Coins". The display showed examples of elongated coins that were designed and rolled by Dottie Dow. To my surprise, I saw pictures of Lloyd and Alberta Wagaman in the display case. The memories came flooding back: to the times I would spend at their home with Lloyd showing me his latest token find as well as Alberta showing me her latest acquisition for her Eli Lilly collection. Lloyd was always working on a project. One major one that comes to mind was him giving me an update on the progress of his Ingle book. I always enjoyed talking to them on the phone and visiting with him and Alberta at the annual and regional IKO shows. Lloyd was always generous with his time and knowledge.

The pictures were taken before I really knew Lloyd and Alberta. There were several pictures of Lloyd with Dottie Dow at the 1969 ANA show in Philadelphia, and a picture of Dottie Dow with Lloyd and Alberta at the 1968 ANA show in San Diego. It was like going back in time seeing a much younger Lloyd and Alberta that I never knew. I paused, "talked" a little to them and moved to the next exhibit, glad to have "met" them one more time...

CONGRATULATIONS TO JACK SMITH

You will recall Jack Smith sharing his collection of IN Good For Mirrors with us within the last two years. Apparently, Jack is not a one trick pony. It has come to our attention that Jack was inducted into the Indianapolis Bowling Hall Of Fame in November, 2013. That's a great honor, Jack!

ANTIQUES ROADSHOW

by Kevin Grant

One episode of Antiques Roadshow, from Great Britain, caught my interest with an antique brought in for evaluation. The lady reached into her pocket and pulled out an 8 scalloped piece of brass. Knowing what it was brought a smile to my face. I thought, "It's a token!" It turned out to be blank on the reverse and had the incused letters PIT on the obverse.

When asked if she knew what it was, the lady said she thought it was a pass into an orchestra pit, circa late 1800's. The wise expert just smiled and said, "No". He assured her it was a late 18th Century piece, circa 1795, that served as a pass into dog fighting pits or cock fighting pits, more likely the dogs.

Furthermore, he informed her it was worth several thousand British pounds! Not being an 18th/19th Century historian or economist, I am not going to pass judgement on why someone back in those days would spend the money required to make a token like this for something as trivial as a pass into a fighting arena. All I want to know is the experts address. I want to bundle up all of my three letter tokens, whether they spell anything or not, and send them to him. I will even make him the offer of only £1,000 each. Plenty of profit available to him, right?

I will let you know when I get my check. I also wouldn't hold your breath waiting for this to happen.

It is time to renew your IKO-TAMS membership. If you haven't paid for the 2014 year, please send $10 to:

James C. Lindsay, 2715 Old Pond Cove, Ft. Wayne, IN 46815

2013 IKO-TAMS AUCTION RESULTS

This year's auction highlights included an unlisted IN town trade token, several OH trade tokens, a Canal Zone NCO Mess token, several OH and IN CWTs and an autographed copy of Lloyd Wagaman's Indiana Trade Tokens text. There were also more passed lots (primarily IL tokens) than usual. Unless otherwise indicated (M = Mail Bid, NB = No Bid), the winning bids were floor bids. Thanks to all the consignors and bidders and to Ed Kucia for tabulating the auction results and everyone else who made the auction a success. A special thanks to Dave Gossett for all his hard work in creating another successful show. A big thank you to the consignor who donated lots #56 & #57 to the club. Thanks to all the dealers (especially several new ones) and attendees and to all the people who worked behind the scenes including Kevin Grant for his editorial and publishing help. Please consider consigning material to next year's auction – it's never too early!

Hi Guys- Please see email below.

This piece sold in the 2011 auction for $12 and I told Mrs. Bohman that it might be a little tricky to locate the buyer (consignor would be easier). Rather than doing that, I was wondering if anyone has this token or any other Osgood, OH pieces that she might be interested in. If so, please contact her and let her know. If you do contact her, please cc me to keep me in the loop. Perhaps we can get a story for the newsletter out of this and she can fill us in about her grandfather and his bar/restaurant. Thanks, Terry Stahurski

“I noticed this on an old web page --- Norbert Stucke owned a bar / restaurant called Norb's Place in Osgood, Ohio and he was my grandfather. Do you still have this token, or if not do you have a record of who owns it?

Any others from merchants in Osgood? Thank you.” -- Nancy Bohman, 614-264-0620, n.bohman@yahoo.com

IKO MAVERICKS

Mavericks for this column may be sent to the address of the Maverick Editor given on the 2nd page of this newsletter. Please include a phone number or email address in case I have any questions about your submission. It is very important to me to get these listings correct the first time. As a former Maverick Editor once told me, "Once a mistake gets into the published literature, it is almost impossible to correct". It is my job to get these done right and I will strive to do so. Thank you.

Please email me if you want an electronic copy of the IKO mavericks in .pdf format. The program that reads this file is free. If you don't have it, let me know and I can send instructions to get that, too.

IKO-TAMS SHOW REVIEW 2013

by Jerome Schaeper, Jr.

Another IKO-TAMS Show has come and gone and our Oct. 11th & 12th event was another success. Manager Dave Gossett informed me there were 27 tables sold, with a similar number of dealers, the most since the Show was moved back to Englewood, Ohio three years ago. There were dealers and collectors from at least 12 states represented, including IN, KY, OH, MI, PA, TN, WV, IL, MA, FL, TX, and AZ. The American Legion continues to get good reviews as a show site. Convenient is a big parking lot, with dealers parking within 20-30 feet from the entrance to the Show. The lighting at the hall is exceptional. I've taken my lights three years now, and never used them yet! The free donuts and coffee both days, and the Friday Pork Chop Dinner (not free) offered by the Legion are ever popular.

Our Membership Secretary Jim Lindsay, along with Show Manager's wife Sue Gossett, manned the table at the entrance, handing out name tags, accepting dues for 2014, and signing up new members. I'm told that we had perhaps 150 or more visitors, based on the number of name tags handed out. Combine this with the approximately 50 dealers and assistants and the result was an active Show. Friday is traditionally a busier day than Saturday, but we noticed more collectors there on Saturday this year than in 2012. We missed Bulletin Editor Kevin Grant, at home recovering from major surgery. Hopefully, the card we sent with signatures convinced him he was in our thoughts. [It was a much needed pick-me-up after not being able to attend. A big, "THANK YOU" to all involved. – KG] Also absent were Joe Copeland and Virginia King, two members who are veteran IKO-TAMS Show dealers. Both are having health issues. Also, Gino Sanfillipo, part of the Cleveland trio (Gino, Terry Stahurski, and Ed Kucia) that handle the bidboard, had other commitments. Gino usually calls the bidboard auction.

There were several sizable deals among show dealers, including Michigan's Bob Williams and the Air Force's Mike Miller. Many dealers there I see only once a year, so it's always nice to chat with folks like Joe Bettinger from Toledo, OH; Ron Vore from Xenia, OH; Jim Hartman from PA; John Dunlap from Indiana, etc. Bob and Cindy Digiannantonio, recently relocated to Florida from Illinois, were there again. They were dealers at the Show in 2011. They sell under the ebay name generalstore99 and I am betting most token collectors actively buying on ebay have bought from them [I know I have. They always have a good selection. – KG] Paul and Michael Leafgreen had a table this year. They came with their late father Ray for many years, but this is the first time I recall them with a table. Paul Cunningham was there as usual, manning almost an entire wall of tables. Paul was the original IKO-TAMS Show auctioneer in the early years. Florida's Randy Partin drove up to the Show again, as he did in 2012. After he gave me a rundown of the exonomia he bought at the Show, plus side trips planned on his return home, I know he was pleased.

The Show Bidboard was interesting. Of 58 lots, 12 were passed on and 9 went to mail bidders. The remainder went to floor bidders. Highlights included a dug Tampico, Ind. High School lunch token that brought $48 and a Panama C.Z. NCO token that catalogues for $12 in the Cunningham catalog brought $84. There was keen interest in a mint condition, autographed copy of Lloyd Wagaman's Indiana Trade Tokens book that brought $130. Terry Stahurski has been a reliable and efficient bidboard manager for many years. Our hats go off to him.

The IKO-TAMS success is due to the efforts of Dave Gossett. He handles the arrangements, dealer contracts, advertising, show fliers, hall reservation and set up, with an able assistant in Ron Vore, and all the other details that most folks don't even consider, unless they've ran shows. Not only do Dave, Terry Stahurski, and Jim Lindsay, all collectors in their right, selflessly give their time to make the Show better, that is time they could be spending on the bourse floor looking for items for their own collections. I appreciate that and hope you do, too. Hope to see some new (and old) faces at the 2014 Show.

EDITOR'S NOTES

As you read earlier in the Bulletin, I have been put in the position of resigning from my post of Editor. While I would have loved to continue the job, an uncertain future health-wise (stage 4 melanoma) dictates that I step aside now rather than down the road.

It has already affected the timing of this issue, being about a month late, as I struggle to get through the chemo treatments (I will have had the last one by the time you read this) while trying to still fulfill my job responsibilities at school.

I have told President Gossett I will somehow continue to edit the Bulletin if a replacement cannot be found. However, if a replacement is not found there will come a time when issues will not be arriving in mailboxes.

If you have a commitment to seeing this arm of our organization continue, please consider contacting Dave for more details. When I volunteered back in 2005, my only qualifications were the desire to do my part for the hobby and the word processing skills to put together a newsletter of this type. I had never done anything like this before and would have never imagined myself in this position (my training is decidedly not in the arena of desktop publishing). I was actually expecting then President Jack Siles to turn down my offer due to lack of experience on my part.

Once taking the job, I found it was easier than I first imagined. For me, the hard part is not in the technical details, but in waiting for articles to show up in my email inbox or my physical mailbox. Due to the generosity of the members, I have yet to publish a Bulletin without at least one article of interest to the membership, and the cupboard is not bare. I have two members promising articles, one that I have done the research for, a lead on a multipart story, and two or three in hand and ready to go.

If you have questions, please contact me at one of the ways outlined on the second page of this newsletter. I will be happy to help this transition as much as I can, but it needs to be done sooner rather than later.

At present I will keep editing the IKO Mavericks (unless someone would like to take over this, too). I also plan to keep working on the Indiana book. After I retire in June (99% sure of this), I hope to have some time to work on the project with greater focus.

Speaking of the Indiana book, I would like to give a big "Thank you" to Bill Hamm. He recently contributed to the project by giving me years worth of his research on Indiana tokens. It will be invaluable material when I have more time to work with it.

I am also now out of the collecting business. While I want to continue doing the research, I do not want to burden my wife with the dispersment of my collection. Look for my tables at the next IKO Show, October 10-11, 2014. You don't know how much I missed being at the Show this year. Thank you for all of your thoughts and prayers on my behalf.

After 3 straight no shows for Virginia King at the October IKO-TAMS show, I tried calling her. Both of her phones, Indiana and Texas, were no longer in use, so I wrote her a letter. I received her reply today, a 4 pager, from her Indiana address. Her main problem, besides advanced age, is spinal degeneration. She can still walk and drive, but only for short distances. She wanted to make the IKO-TAMS Show this year but a fall on September 27th slowed her down even more. Plus her son and daughter-in-law were on a cruise so they could not drive her.

Virginia gave up her land line phone so now she only has her cell. She didn't winter in Texas this year because her trailer there fell apart last year. So she stayed in Indiana. She'd like to hear from anyone who cares to write or call. She said she's too old to learn computers. Virginia turns 91 on Christmas Day, so she might be our most senior member?

Virginia King
600 N. Colfax, Apt. 233
Warsaw, IN 46580
574-527-9559

(Since I am the closest IKO member to Virginia I like to give her a call occasionally to see how she is doing. She always has a story to tell, several if you have time! When I need to talk to someone about tokens (nothing specific, it's just nice to be able to have a token conversation sometimes), Virginia always makes time for my queries. She would love to talk with you, too. – KG)

ARTICLES FOR THE BULLETIN NEEDED!

I still have a small backlog of articles for the next year's issues, but it will soon run out. Do you have a story to tell? A favorite token story that you could share? It doesn't have to be long and scholarly with great detail. It needs to be something you would share with all of your token buddies – the rest of us in IKO.

Please send anything you have to the Bulletin Editor at the address given on page 42. All contributions are greatly appreciated.
