IKO-TAMS Bulletin

Vol. 40 No. 3

November 2017

40th ANNUAL SHOW — Our show went very well with another very good crowd although it did not seem quite as large as last year in my opinion. The banquet hall sparkled from the recent redecoration and was supplied with beautiful new tables. The only down side was a minor one. The unseasonably warm weather caused the air conditioner to run a lot and a small number of dealers were in the path of the air flow and uncomfortably chilly. We hope to return next year to October for the meeting which should solve the problem. We did have an issue regarding name badges for dealers. I had not planned to use them (more work) as they were not used the previous year and no one complained. This year, late on Friday, a dealer asked for a badge and I happened to have his from a previous show. I dug through what I had and handed them out. Some dealers did not get one. To them the show chairman apologizes. Next year I will have badges for all dealers. At the end of the day, Saturday, we did not have enough IKO-TAMS members present to help put away the tables and chairs, and a non-member did considerable work to help. Next year, I will ask some of you to stick around for the clean-up. --- Thanks to all who, in one way or another, made a successful show happen.

VIRGINIA KING DONATION --- We finished selling almost all of the widely varied donation; some in bulk lots to dealers. To date, our society has realized $1,552. The only items yet to be sold are a fairly large quantity of foreign coins, the vast majority of which are modern minors. Over the winter I will get them organized and start disposition at coin shows and other appropriate outlets. A final report will be forth coming next year.

AUCTION 2017 — Terry Starhuski and his able assistants did a fine job once again. The prices realized list is enclosed. Net proceeds to our treasury were $152.50 thanks in part to the generous members who donated items.

2018 ANNUAL SHOW --- This will be our forty first. As stated before, this maybe my last. To date, no one has made it known they are interested in being show chairman. Dates will be announced in the March bulletin.

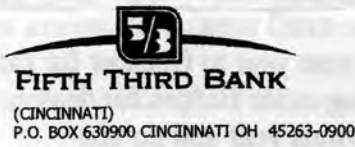

2018 MEMBERSHIP DUES --- No dues will be required; another gift to you from IKO-TAMS.

PASSINGS --- We received notice that Donald Fox of Fox Numismatics, Toledo, OH died in October. Mr. Fox was a former member of IKO-TAMS frequently seen around our area at coin shows. He was assisted in his business by Joe Bettinger. Joe was a long-time member of ours and a strong supporter. He is also deceased.

BEST WISHES FOR A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND THE HOLIDAYS!

2017 IKO-TAMS AUCTION RESULTS

Despite a smaller auction than usual, this year's auction had strong bidding especially on a slabbed OH saloon token and several OH BBC tokens. Prices were also good for other OH pieces, two scarce IN tokens and a WA military token. Several pieces brought amounts considerably higher than their book values. There were only four passed lots, down significantly from last year's 15. Not counting the passed lots, the average winning bid was $19.59.

Thanks to all the consignors and bidders and to Ed Kucia and Dave Gossett for tabulating the auction results and Gino SanFilippo for calling the auction. Also, thanks to all the dealers and attendees and to all who worked behind the scenes. A special thank you to Dave Gossett for all his hard work in creating another successful show and to Ron Vore for his help as well as Charlie Turner for taking care of the bourse and to Jerry Schaeper for his advertising efforts. Also, thanks to people who donated lots including Randall Harlow, Dennis Poland, Paul Cunningham and the Virginia King estate.

Please consider consigning material to next year's auction – it's never too early!

Unless otherwise indicated (M = Mail Bid, NB = No Bid), the winning bids were floor bids.
